List of references for the early HEC and BTM computers.

Note that the background to all the early British stored-program projects from 1945 – 1951 is summarised in: Alan Turing and his Contemporaries: building the world's first computers. Simon Lavington [ed]. Published by BCS in 2012. 111 pages; many illustrations. ISBN: 978-1-90612-490-8.

Another general account, spanning the period from the late 1940s to the mid-1960s, is: Early British Computers (Simon Lavington). Published by Manchester University Press (in the UK) and Digital Press (in the USA) in 1980. 139 pages, many illustrations. ISBN: 0-7190-0803-4.
